

Joan M. Halley Memorial Scholarship for Health Exploration & Community Engagement

The Joan M. Halley Memorial Scholarship for Health Exploration & Community Engagement seeks to honor the memory of Joan M. Halley by supporting students who share her passion for health, community engagement, and personal growth. Through this scholarship, we aim to empower students to pursue their academic and personal aspirations while embodying the values exemplified by Joan M. Halley.

Criteria For Selection:

- The student must demonstrate a genuine interest in learning about health and promoting wellbeing, as evidenced by coursework, extracurricular activities, volunteer work, or personal experiences.
- The student should be actively involved in their community, displaying a commitment to making a positive impact through service, leadership, or other forms of engagement.

Requirements For Consideration:

- Students are required to apply for and be tentatively accepted to The Stateless Collective's Innovation, Design, & Engineering Academy (IDEA) before the award date in order to be considered.
- While not required, students are welcome to submit an essay on how they plan on demonstrating the values exemplified by Joan M. Halley throughout their IDEA experience to supplement their application.
- Students who wish to submit supplemental materials after applying for IDEA may contact info@thestatelesscollective.org

Award Terms

- The selected recipient will receive instructions for how to apply the award amount during the course registration process to cover the cost of IDEA registration & enrollment.
- The scholarship award is non-transferable and may not be combined with other scholarships or financial aid packages without prior approval.
